No Means No!

When Auntie Jeanie asks me for a kiss,
and I don't want to ...

No Means No!

I can choose to blow her a kiss,
shake her hand, or give her a high five,
but if I don't want a hug or a kiss ...

No Means No!

When it's bath time and my mother asks if she can wash and dry my private parts, and I say, 'No thanks, I can do it all by myself' ...

No Means No!

I can wash and dry my own private parts today, tomorrow or the next day because my body is my body and I am the BOSS of it!

Sometimes my big cousin looks after me.
We run races and have fun on the swings,
but if he wants to wrestle and play tickling games, and I don't want to ...

No Means No!

We can build a giant sandcastle in the sand or play catch with a ball, but if I don't want to wrestle or play tickling games ...

No Means No!

When someone asks to hold my hand at school and I want to walk all by myself ...

No Means No!

Sometimes, I like to walk by myself and I don't want to hold anyone's hand.

I can say, 'No thanks'
or 'Not today',
as kindly as I can.

When people ask me things and I say, 'No' ...

I don't mean 'Maybe'
and I don't mean 'I'm not sure'.

What I REALLY mean is No!

So even though I may be small ...
I am strong and I have a voice that is LOUD and CLEAR.

So ... when I say, 'No' ...

No Means No!
